Subject: Re: Cost Recovery Information Session and Workshop - 25th October 2018 - Margaret River

Thank you for your time and thank you for your feedback I know it doesn't work for everyone and everyone is very easy to say no .

I also think that people are very happy to do the recording for you so that the water can be managed efficiently it is just a very tough Climate at the moment and I hope you understand people are quite anxious about the future at the moment thanks again

Good Morning

Thank you for making the time to attend the recent cost recovery information session and workshop held on the 25 October 2018 in Margaret River. Your attendance and input into Government's proposed fees relating to applications for clearing permits and water licences is appreciated.

Please find attached a copy of the presentation from the information session and the collated comments of all attendees from the workshop session. This information will assist the Department in providing advice to Government.

As discussed at the workshop, you are also encouraged to provide a written submission on the proposal by using the online form available at <https://dwer.wa.gov.au/cost-recovery-response-form>

Yours sincerely
