NATIVE VEGETATION CLEARING

1 . Would a strategic approach to clearing, through a strategic purpose permit, benefit you?

Response: no
Comments:

2. Is the 'purpose component' reasonable to apply considering the added complexity of assessing this type of clearing permit?

Response: no
Comments:
to large of a fee increase
3. Is the proposed fee structure fair and does it adequately reflect differences in the financial capacity of clearing permit applicants?

Response: no
Comments:
excessively high for family agriculture
4. What is the likely impact on your business or industry of the proposed clearing fee structure?

Comments:
negative impact. loss of income
5. Additional comments regarding Native Vegetation Clearing not addressed in the questions above.

Comments:
fees should remain the same

WATER

6. Do you consider it reasonable for taxpayers to pay 100 per cent of the cost of assessing water licence and permit applications and if so, why?

Response: yes

Comments:

the public uses the information provided by licences holders for the development of government policy for future uses of water 7. If water licence and permit assessment fees were introduced, what do you consider to be an appropriate fee for a water licence or permit application?

Comments:

NONE

8. Would you consider a risk-based model for determining water licence and permit application fees to be appropriate? If not, what basis could the department use to structure fees?

Response: no

Comments:

no fees

9. What would be the likely impact on your business or industry if water licence and permit fees were introduced?

Comments:

loss of future income, loss of my employment 10. If water licence and permit assessment fees were introduced, how could the collection of fees be timed to better support your business or industry? For example, would you benefit from paying fees up front, at the end of a licence assessment or annualised over the term of the licence?

Response: unsure

Comments

*i'm not unsure. i am positive that it should not be required to pay these fees - i had to tick the unsure button to submit this form

11 . Additional comments regarding Water licences and permits not addressed in the questions above.

Comments:

don't do it
